Oil Spill Prevention and Response:
A Selected Bibliography on the Exxon Valdez Oil Spill

April 2002

The following bibliography is the result of a broad-based literature search of dissertations, journal articles, conference papers, and other sources. These references focus on oil spill prevention and response related to the Exxon Valdez oil spill, and represent a variety of perspectives.

This list is not comprehensive or all-inclusive. Researchers are encouraged to consult the other topic bibliographies on this web page, and search indexes available at their local library and web-based search engines for more information.

To obtain copies of these documents, contact your local librarian for assistance in locating these items in the library or through interlibrary loan.

******************************************************************************

Anon. Grounding of the Exxon Valdez: conclusions from the NTSB accident report. Seaways. 3-5.

Bergmann, P. 1995. Cultural resources protection: how prepared are federal and state agencies in 1994 to deal with potential impacts to cultural resources during a spill response?

Parker, W.B. 1995. A research program to ensure that best available technology is used in preventing and responding to oil spills in Alaska and the North Pacific. Prevention, Response, and Oversight Five Years after the Exxon Valdez Oil Spill, 355-360. Alaska Sea Grant Report, 1994; AK-SG 95-02.

